

Sport Coaching persons with Disabilities Specialist Course

This course is Preparing and qualifying Coaches in schools, centers and clubs on how and how to train sports for persons with disabilities through:

- Provide participants with knowledge and information on the concept of sports training for persons with disabilities.
- Preparation of the training bag for persons with disabilities (training unit, leadership in training, program design, load planning, scouting, ...).
- Introducing participants to sports training methods for people with disabilities.
- Participants' knowledge of the functional classification system in the sports contests for persons with disabilities.
- Specialized sports training (various sports).
- Learn about the devices and tools used in sports for persons with disabilities.
- Ethics in dealing with persons with disabilities in general and in the field of sports.

The duration of the course is 4 days at 24 credit hours.